

Promoting Equality Through Drama

Venue: Rotherham College of Arts & Technology (Theatre)

Wednesday 7th March 9.15am – 3.30pm (lunch included)

Engaging learners on equality and diversity can require some creativity and innovation. The use of drama is a powerful learning experience to highlight issues that can be faced in our communities, and therefore raise awareness and promotes understanding.

This network session, lead by Rotherham College of Arts and Technology, will:

- Detail the benefits of promoting equality through drama
- Showcase the excellent results when drama and diversity are combined
- Show how this can be extended to include forum theatre and hot seating (i.e. audience involvement)
- Explain how you can work with other providers on drama projects
- Offer clear guidance for you to take away and consider for your own organisation

- To reserve your place please visit the web-site and select event booking
- We require just a £50 contribution per attendee (no VAT to pay), further info enclosed
- Please use the contact details below for any further queries
